VOL. XXVIII. NO. 52. CHICAGO, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1922. SPECIAL EDITION

BEGINNING THE LAST WEEK

Fair Grounds Racing Brings Out a Big Attendance.

Rep Springs a Surprise in the Day's Chief Race—Yashmak Scores for Whitney.

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 20.—In the mile and a sixteenth $1,500 purse came an outstanding surprise by the victory of Rep, a continuous disappointment in many previous races. He was an extreme outsider in the field of six that made the contest, but developed extensive support near the end to land among the placed ones. Joaquina and Cimarron had the call in a betting way, with Willow Tree and Pimlico considerably supported.

Cimarron began as if she would make a runaway of it, for she attained a five-length lead in the first half mile, with Willow Tree her closest pursuer and the favorite next. Rep and Lampus were seemingly hard at it to keep from being distanced. Suddenly Rep began a rush that gradually caused him to forge into the lead before the last eighth was reached and he seemed to have the race assured, but Pimlico, making a threatening rush, loomed up menacingly and ultimately forced Rep to his best pace, but he was good enough to win by a scant head. Zoeller's ride on the winner was in as much contrast to his usual form as the horse's performance, for he rode an extra strong finish.

Another summerlike day, a bit cloudy near the close and presaging rain, was instrumental in bringing to the track the full strength of racing enthusiasts here, augmented by many hundreds of first-time visitors who have come to the city from distant points for the approaching Mardi Gras festivities.

The H. P. Whitney colors were successful in the fifth race when Yashmak scored easily under a good ride by Lang, in which that rider seemingly put the race in jeopardy when he pulled her up on the stretch turn, anticipating a possible cut-off and took the filly around on the outside. She then came like a streak in response to hard riding and wore Black Betty down in the closing strides. Yashmak was a pronounced favorite, having been backed with rare confidence and her success meant a big loss for the layers.

The racing began with a dash for two-year-olds, twelve again making the contest, and Rork, a flashy looking gelding by Assagai—Affinity, carrying the J. L. Holland colors, was luckiest and also well ridden and won with space to spare. Everhart, a newcomer owned by J. M. Goode, was probably best in the race, but suffered some from crowding soon after the start and also raced green, but he came tremendously fast in the last eighth and outstayed The Ulster for second place. Kewpie S., which was given much consideration, had a rough race.

Betsinda, because of being ridden by the unfashionable Jones, was given a wide berth by the backers, but she won in easy style from Satana, with Murphy, the favorite, landing in third place.

THOMAS' FINE HORSEMANSHIP.

Claymore was considered the best betting proposition of the afternoon, but was beaten out in the last stride by Tribune after he had the purse seemingly won. The finish was a thriller and reflected credit on Thomas, who rode Tribune.

The Florisant silks were victorious in the final dash, but it was somewhat of a lucky victory for Troilus and partly due to Pool's superior generalship over Ponce, who had the mount on Pirate McGee. The latter was probably best, but had to be raced wide and also was buffeted about considerably during the running.

Albert Simons, trainer for the Orleans Stable, departed for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will remain until the middle of March. From there he will proceed to Bowie, where his horses will be shipped from here. Jockey Frank Coltiletti, who rode at the Fair Grounds for Simons, also left yesterday, with Red Bank, N. J., as his destination.

Racing secretary Joe McLennan has made ample provisions for horses which failed to meet with success at the Fair Grounds thus far, as eleven races for non-winners in 1922 are scheduled in the remaining seven days of the meeting. Four of them will be on Friday's program.

Only two claiming races will be on the Mardi Gras card, the first and last. Secretary McLennan will make an effort to get the leaders in every division out upon that occasion and the selling platers will be relegated to the rear. They have had a big season, however, especially those which are good in muddy going, as they had things their own way for several weeks at a stretch.

G. L. BLACKFORD AN ARRIVAL.

G. L. Blackford, prominent Texas breeder, who has a large stable of horses at the Fair Grounds, including the fleet Centimeter, was an arrival from his home in Denison, Texas. He plans to remain until the windup. Trainer Dick Vestal will ship the Blackford horses to Churchill Downs on March 6, or as close to that date as he can get an express car.

W. L. Hatchett, who took a stable of horses to Mexico City following the close of the Jefferson Park meeting, returned from there today. He did not bring any horses back.

Betsinda, winner of the second race, was claimed by Mrs. J. E. Nagle, represented by Heliocross, for $1,500. This marked her third consecutive win for C. T. Worthington.

H. T. Griffin today disposed of two more of his two-year-olds, Dentaria and Agrimonia. The former was purchased by C. W. Chappell, while F. P. Lettellier bought the latter. The remainder of the Griffin two-year-olds will be sold at auction at the Fair Grounds tomorrow morning. He will proceed at once to Louisville, where he has sixteen youngsters wintering.

Jockey B. Marinelli departed for Louisville, Ky., where he will remain for several days before proceeding to New York to report to trainer Max Hirsch. Marinelli came here last autumn the leading rider of America, but he failed to live up to his reputation at either of the local meetings.

ROBERT OLIVER BUSY RACER

John Lumsden's Good Steeplechaser Has Won $30,760 in Nine Years' Racing.

Robert Oliver, the veteran steeplechaser in John Lumsden's stable and his leading winner last year, has been racing each year since 1913. This will be his tenth consecutive year on the turf. During that time he has started in 118 races and won twenty-eight of them and $30,760. Last year was his best, with seven wins out of eighteen starts and $13,935 in stable earnings. Robert Oliver's complete record follows:

MARYLAND BILL IS DELAYED

No Action Expected on Anti-Racing Measure Until Next Week.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., February 20.—The Hall anti-racing bill remains in the hands of the house judiciary committee. In spite of repeated threats of its author, delegate W. P. Hall, that he would force the bill before the house, he has not as yet done so and now it appears that other legislation will occupy the attention of the house at least for ten days.

Hall's attempt to force his committee to report the bill out Thursday was defeated by a vote of 9 to 3. He then declared his intention of forcing the bill before the house by means of a petition to be signed by fifteen members. This he failed to do, and as a result the advancement of the bill to second reading is still some time ahead.

Tuesday's session, it appears, will be occupied by bills which have been made a special order and the remaining days of this week are also filled with other business, according to those in close touch with legislative activities.

"CURLEY" BROWN'S BREEDING PLANS

HAVANA, Cuba, February 20.—H. D. ("Curley") Brown, founder and up to two years ago president and general manager of Oriental Park, who is enjoying a visit here, has purchased a number of mares during the last week and will ship them to his ranch in northern California, where he expects to establish a breeding farm. Mr. Brown is also on the lookout for a first-class stallion.

Up to the time of his arrival here recently it was not generally known that Mr. Brown was the owner of such a place, which comprises 1,000 acres, convenient to a railroad and not far from the Oregon border.

OMAHA MEETING JUNE 3 TO JUNE 17

OMAHA, Neb., February 20.—The Ak-Sar-Ben Exhibition Company has announced the dates for the spring meeting to be held here. It will be of thirteen days' duration, opening on June 3 and ending June 17. About $40,000 will be given in purses, with six or more races daily. Speculation will be by means of the pari-mutuels.

Jockey Earl Pool returned to the saddle after a lay-off of three days, occasioned by illness.

Word was received to day from Dick Pending, track superintendent at Bowie, advising horsemen not to ship there for the present, because of the inclement weather and the condition of the track. He will notify them in ample time when to move in that direction.

Entries for the $290,000 worth of Kentucky stakes close tomorrow. Julius Reeder of the racing secretary's office force is looking after them at the Fair Grounds and he reports more nominations than ever before. He received numerous entries for the $50,000 added Kentucky Derby.

J. Cunniffe claimed Pirate McGee out of the seventh race for $1,600. Lorena Moss was his representative in the race.

Two of Broomstick's progeny were returned winners at the Fair Grounds today, Yashmak and Troilus. Few sons and daughters of this noted sire have raced here this winter, but those on the job are upholding his reputation.

OMOND'S GREAT TRIUMPH

Defeats Best Horses at Tijuana in San Diego Business Men's Handicap.

TIJUANA, Mexico, February 20.—A little David-like sort of a horse whipped the Goliaths of the western turf Sunday. He whipped them in a stretch duel and he drew the plaudits of the greatest crowd of the meeting. He whipped them under a warm tropical sun and snatched a spectacular victory by the narrow margin of a nose. This happened in the $5,000 San Diego Business Men's Handicap, at one and one-sixteenth miles, and the winner was the Kentucky horse Omond, from the M. Quinn stable. The successful jockey was T. Wilson. He made no mistakes and Omond took kindly to his light impost of ninety-six pounds, the least carried by any of the other twelve horses in the brilliant field, except Verdi Loon and Indian Prince.

The race was a grand one and it had the support of not only thoroughbred patrons but the staid business man as well, for among its backers were the San Diego Chamber of Commerce and other civic and commercial bodies. Its name drew this kind of support.

It was the first appearance under silks this year of Be Frank, which was last year's champion here. He, together with Sunnyland, made up the Bronx Stable entry. The entry was installed favorite on the book at 3 to 1 and finished outside the money, whereas Omond was 10 to 1 before they went to the post and paid 15 to 1 in the mutuel machines.

Despite the fact that thirteen thoroughbreds faced the barrier starter Harry Morrissey sent them away after a fraction of a minute and on almost perfect alignment. Motor Cop, which, with Regreso, carried the colors of C. B. Irwin, set the pace and he made it a sizzling one. Omond was held under restraint by jockey Wilson, the rider keeping him a few lengths back of the pacemaker in fourth position. Sunnyland was well up in the early running, but Be Frank went wide going around the first turn and could not get into a forward position. Furbelow, the game, consistent little mare from the Shaefer & Conway stable, which seems to have a penchant for running second in the big stakes here, was up among the leaders. Motor Cop was done at three-quarters and then Omond moved up to join the leaders. They turned for home and by this time Omond was leading by half a length. Furbelow was not to be denied. She hung on to the son of Lomond with admiring tenacity. She neither could be shaken off nor could she overhaul the Quinn thoroughbred. With the crowd of 10,000 rising as one spectator and shouting an acclaim which reverberated through the verdant Mexican hills Omond stuck it out to win by a nose from Furbelow. In third position came Breeze, which was beaten off four lengths.

DISAPPOINTMENTS IN RACE.

The disappointments of the race were East Indian, winner of the stakes of the last two Sundays; Regal Lodge and Be Frank. The latter was always far back and demonstrated by his race that he is far from the horse he was when he won the $20,000 Coffroth Handicap last year. Regal Lodge was another that was badly outpaced and after pulling up he came back to the paddock quite lame. Perhaps this accounted for his poor showing.

Tijuana has had many exciting finishes, but the climax of these came yesterday afternoon in the Roseben Handicap, at five and one-half furlongs. The finish found four horses separated by the smallest of margins and close scrutiny on the part of the judges was required to locate the winner and place the others. First honors were awarded to Sam Reh, which, with only ninety-nine pounds on his back, overcame interference to eventually outgame Huron II. Mulciber again was an unlucky horse. After getting away badly he dwelt at the start, but made up many lengths and the finish saw him running two strides to one of the others. Surely he would have been returned the winner had he left the post on even terms with his opponents.

After many reverses the colors of C. Vail were finally carried to victory in the seventh race, at one mile and seventy yards, when Gath met and defeated a good band of long-distance platers. His margin at the end was a safe one, with Franklin and Louis Lachmund finishing as named.

There was a gasp for the safety of two riders in the first race when two horses fell, but at different parts of the race. Vera Rita was the first to go down, falling at the half-mile post. Then while the big field was thundering on the far turn Cicely Kay was caught in a jam and the horse and rider catapulted to the ground. Bower, who rode Vera Rita, and P. Hurn, who had the mount on Cicely Kay, escaped serious injuries. However, they suffered a severe shakeup and were forced to cancel the rest of their engagements for the afternoon.

Jockey Studer was the saddle luminary of the day. He scored three wins in a row, having the mounts on Wise Judge, Miss Kruter and Sam Reh.

The men with the halters were extremely busy ere the last race was decided. Five horses changed ownership as follows: American Maid by C. B. Irwin, $800; Cover Up by J. J. Sharkey, $800; No Wonder by H. T. Palmer, $800; C. A. Comiskey by Strite & Valentine for $1,800, and Tom Craven by C. B. Irwin for $2,500.

AUSTRALIAN CRACK SELLS FOR $30,000

One of the best race horses and stayers in Australia, David, 4, by Baverstock—Linotype, which has won $34,938 in three years, has been sold to go from Sydney to Melbourne to N. Falkiner, one of the leading turfmen of Victoria, for $30,000. David cost R. Baylie, who sold him, $200 as a yearling. He goes into the same stable as Eurythmic and may take his place in racing. Though David is inferior to Eurythmic at weight-for-age, there is a suspicion that the champion may not be entirely sound or as reliable as of old, and that David was bought to fill his gap.

LATEST TURF GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, Ky., February 20.—Frank J. Stevens of Laurel, Md., who has been racing at Havana, arrived here today and spent the morning at the Kentucky Jockey Club track. Mr. Stevens sold all the horses he took with him to Cuba.

Jockey Dan Connelly arrived today from New Orleans to ride for the stable of H. H. Hewitt, which John I. Smith is getting in condition at the local track.

Sanford C. Lyne has been awarded by the Jockey Club the names of Newmarket and Larchmont for two of his best racing prospects.

HAVANA'S NEXT FIXTURE

Independence Handicap of $5,000 Added to Be Run Friday.

Crack Field to Strive for Its Rich Prize—True Flier Best of Juveniles.

HAVANA, Cuba, February 20.—With the rich Grand National Handicap now a matter of turf history the attention of horsemen and racegores is now turning toward the next valuable stake to be decided at Oriental Park. This is the Independence Handicap, which will have its annual renewal Friday, February 24, Cuba's Independence day, or generally known as Grito de Baire Day. This stake, which was won last year by Mrs. O. B. Potts' Bread Man, is for horses three years old and over, and the distance is one mile and an eighth. The race is endowed to the extent of $5,000. It attracted fifty-nine entries, including all of the best horses in training. Among the potentiial ones that are likely to start are the Goldapple Stable's triple stake winner Billy Barton; Mose Goldblatt's Dr. Clark and Atta Boy II.; H. E. Swan's Sea Prince; the C. & D. Stable's General Menocal and Aiken; N. Adan's General J. M. Gomez; Keene Bros.' Llewellyn; W. F. Knebelkamp's Lady Astor; John Lowe's The Leopard, and O'Meara Bros.' Louis A. Billy Barton emerged a victor over a similar band in the Grand National, which will entail a considerable weight penalty for the Goldapple Stable's crack racer in his next stake engagement. Weights are due to be announced three days prior to the running of the stake, and owners of eligibles are naturally anxious to see what their horses are asked to shoulder.

True Flier, a filly by the Futurity winner Pennant—Ruth Law, which H. P. Whitney recently sold to Samuel Harris, is probably the best two-year-old at Oriental Park, her victory over the unbeaten Lorena Marcellia showing her real quality. Horsemen are of the opinion that she may prove to be a racer of real merit, and one that will hold her own with the cracks she will be sent against when she leaves here. Her only defeat suffered was on a heavy track when the Missouri-bred filly Lorena Marcellia scored an easy triumph over her. At the time it was believed the Whitney-bred filly could easily reverse this decision and that such did happen is now a matter of record.

Straight Shooter, another juvenile from the Whitney barn, has had several opportunities and has been tried and found wanting, but he may improve with racing, although he can hardly ever be classed with True Flier. Trainer Goldblat may have a few in his barn that may turn out to be first-rate racers, but as yet he has not uncovered them. He is going along slowly, and as the meeting has yet five weeks to run he has abundant time to find out just what they can do in racing.

Havana has been aptly described as New York's gayest suburb. The railroad over the Florida Keys, which shortened the way to Cuba by a full day, was hailed as a remarkable feat of engineering. It made Havana only a three-day journey from New York, in spite of the time lost in crossing over to Cuba by steamer from Key West.

The development of the flying machine, which daily carries passengers to and fro between Key West and Havana, making the run in a little over an hour has brought about a further narrowing of the gap between New York and the Cuban metropolis, so that it is now possible to leave Havana at 6 o'clock in the evening and arrive in New York within forty-eight hours. With the telephone in active service and Havana only two days away, the natural allurements of Cuba are enhanced for the tourists. What with racing, jai ali and incomparable swimming at the Marianao beach, there are few dull moments for the man or woman in quest of recreation, if not rest, under the southern cross.

The Cuban thoroughbred breeding industry received a big boost a short time ago when E. C. Griffith's Cuba Encanto, a three-yead-old colt by Solomon—Charmeuse, and bred at the Oriental Park Stock Farm, met and defeated easily four other good ones of his own age, including Harry Payne Whitney's main Cuban Derby eligible Cherry Tree, and Willie Dugan's Leghorn, another Derby possibility. The native-bred colt showed his heels to his rivals all the way and, displaying good speed, won by a good margin. He is easily the best horse so far produced in the island republic.

BUYS CONTRACT ON JOCKEY MOONEY

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 20.—Acting for J. B. Smith, a California coal magnate and sportsman, H. T. Griffin today purchased the contract which John Marino, New Orleans turfman, held on jockey J. D. Mooney. The price involved was not disclosed. Griffin, who trains the Smith horses, will take Mooney to Louisville and from there will go East. Mooney is a Crescent City lad and a brother of jockey J. Mooney, who was under engagement last year to the Quincy Stable.

CANADIAN STABLE AFTER H. J. BURKE

TORONTO, Ont., February 20.—The Thorncliffe Stable is seeking the services of jockey H. J. Burke to ride Captain Scott in the 1922 running of the King's Plate. Burke, who was one of the best jockeys on the Canadian circuit last year, is at present in New Orleans, but is unable to give the Thorncliffe Stable a definite answer until he hears from John S. Ward, his contract employer, who is in Louisville.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

The Kentucky breeder and turfman, Hal Price Headley, has returned to Lexington after a ten-day visit with his family, who are wintering in Florida.

The speedy Eddie Rickenbacher is training at the Fair Grounds in a manner that suggests that he will give a good account of himself when he sports silks for the fast time this year.

JOHN LUMSDEN'S 1922 TWO-YEAR-OLDS

NEW YORK, N. Y., February 20.—J. W. Healy, trainer for John Lumsden, is a New York visitor. He reports his employer's eighteen horses in good condition in their winter quarters at Benning race track, Washington, D. C. The leading horse of the Lumsden stable is the veteran jumper Robert Oliver, which won the Saratoga Steeplechase Handicap last year, defeating Sweepment and other good steeplechasers.

Healy registered names for the four Lumsden two-year-olds, which will represent the stable in juvenile racing this year. All were bred by Mr. Lumsden at his farm in New Jersey. They are:

Miss Ruth L., ch. f, by Brettenham—Sareena, by The Gull.

Veronica, b. f, by Brettenham—Heatless Day, by Heliotrope.

Wheel In, br. c, by Brettenham—Wheel of Fortune, by Heliotrope.

Elmer Dyer, ch. c, by Brettenham—Joanna II., by John o'Gaunt.

Jake Berger showed a good flight of speed. Dartmoor is fresh and ready. Mascotte was not extended. Dark Hill seems in good condition. Wireless ran easily. Knot Grass could have worked faster. Eddie Rickenbacher is near racing condition. St. Maurice should race well in the near future. Matches Mary was not extended. Valor seems suddenly improved. Ginger galloped an easy mile.
